Subject: Springfield Superfund site

Hi Rudy,

I recently met with the town manager of Springfield, Vermont, and he had some concerns about the town-owned Superfund site. He tells me that it has been challenging for the town to meet the testing requirements, which have continued to go up in cost.

We of course understand how important adequate clean-up at Superfund sites is, but I wanted to check in about what sort of testing is required and what assistance or flexibility there is in the timeline and funding for this.

Any information would be much appreciated. Thanks in advance, Rudy.

All the best,
Haley
